IDEATROPHY
SEMI-FINAL BRIEF

Vaseline

THE SKIN-OBSESSED OG INVITES YOU TO

SHOW UP & GLOW UP

IN UNILEVER IDEATROPHY'S LATEST EDITION!

Vaseline.

At Vaseline

we believe healthy skin should never be out of reach.

Vesseline

But in an age where beauty and wellness

have been hijacked by hype,
our social feeds are in flood,
making it harder for us all to know what's real and what to trust.

THAT'S WHERE

Vaseline

SHOWS UP!
SHOWS UP!
SHOWS UP!
SHOWS UP!
SHOWS UP!

In a culture tired with hype, we know people crave authenticity, proof, and more grounded care.

And for them hype only matters when it's backed by health.

Speaking of skin,
for many the skin care
is all about the face!

But care shouldn't stop at your face.
Real glow comes from healthy skin,
head to toe.

AND THAAAAT'S
WHERE YOUR BRIEF
STARTS,
COME CLOSER

IN TÜRKİYE FACE CARE IS A DAILY RITUAL,

yet body care
is still secondary.

Moisturizing the whole body
is not a consistent habit.

That's the behavioral gap.

And for a brand that cuts
through the hype to give everybody healthy skin that's not something we can overlook!

SO JOIN US!

1

Develop a 360° social first & digital led creative campaign that puts the Vaseline Gluta-Hya portfolio at the center.

2

Identify the real barrier(s) behind this behavioral gap and build a campaign that:

Helps People understand the importance of full body skin care

Inspire and convince a behavioral change to go for the full body skin

Sounds, looks, feels Vaseline!

Make Vaseline
the brand
that turns
full body
skin care
into a daily
essential.

What do we mean by “Social-first & Digital-led” ?

Think ideas that are born for social, not adapted to it.

Your campaign should live naturally in platforms like TikTok, Instagram, and YouTube—where people scroll, share, and engage daily.

Lead with digital experiences.

Use creators, trends, formats, and interactive content to spark participation—not just awareness.

Design for engagement over exposure.

Make people try, share, remix, and talk about your idea.

Be culture-driven and platform-native.

If it wouldn't feel at home on social, it's not the right idea.

in short:

Think content, conversation, and community.

This is a digital campaign
— no TV investment.

HERE ARE THE TIPS TO HELP YOU MAKE YOUR CAMPAIGN

1

Rooted in Vaseline's heritage as the original in skincare, the brand carries generations of healing expertise, combining deep skin obsession with tangible, proven results. It shows up as a universal caretaker—reliable, trusted, and always there to support you when you need it most.

SOUND, LOOK AND FEEL

2

Built on the belief that healthy skin should be accessible to everyone, Vaseline earns trust through honesty and proof, not promises. It exists to empower its users, supporting their choices rather than taking credit, while delivering care that goes beyond the surface. At its core, it champions skincare as a form of true self-expression—helping people care for their skin in a way that feels authentic to them.

3

Vaseline collaborates with culturally relevant voices, skin experts, and tastemakers who embody authenticity from within. These partners share a commitment to proof over promises and lasting trust over passing trends, helping to cut through noise, remove doubt, and transform everyday skincare into a source of confidence.

SOUND, LOOK AND FEEL

Vaseline

4

Vaseline shows up as a skin-obsessed original—deeply rooted in expertise yet fully in tune with contemporary culture. It taps into the energy of hype but grounds everything in proof, offering clarity in a crowded space. Fluent in trends yet anchored in truth, it delivers skincare with a warm, confident authority that empowers people, making them feel stronger rather than diminished.

5

Vaseline's voice is modern, informed, and refreshingly unpretentious—showing up as a reliable ally that always has your back. It guides people toward what truly works, making the process feel good doing it and confidence-boosting. Blending scientific credibility with warmth and wit, it communicates with clarity and energy—expert yet approachable, spirited yet grounded.
